

➤ Bookshelf

Available at bookstores:

Spanning the Gate by Stephen Cassady (1979), the Construction History of the Golden Gate Bridge, published by Squarebooks.

Available on Amazon—books published by Literacy, Ink:

Bouncing Outside by Steve Cassady (2010, revised 2019)—a Picaresque Romp through American Life.

Bridging the Gap by Steve Cassady (2012, revised 2019)—Chronicling the Case for Community College Athletics

Murder by Crows (2017) by Steve Cassady—Hot Crimes in California

Children's Books

Letters to Nana (2020, by Steve Cassady (WCW imprint),

I Read a Book (2020) by Susan Walsh (WCW imprint).

➤ Professional Experience

Steve Cassady, sole owner and employee of Literacy, Ink, is an accomplished professional in five distinct fields.

Education—instructor of humanities at Merced College (1973-1994): all levels of English from remedial composition to the study of Shakespeare. Lecturer in writing, UC Merced, 2008-2010.

Letters—writer/author with credits for all or part of 10 books and more than 100 magazine articles, most associated with American professional football.

Sports administration—director of athletics, Merced College since 1995.

Intercollegiate coaching—head coach, Merced College women's softball, 1988-2008: 607 victories, state and national coach-of-the year, 1999. Inducted, Merced College athletics Hall of Fame, 2014; California state fast-pitch coaches' association Hall of Fame, 2017.

Private Business—owner, operator, Literacy, Ink, since 2008. Partner since 2017 with WCW, Solutions, Inc., a consulting firm, primarily focused on projects of civic enhancement.

➤ Contact

Email: literacyink@comcast.net

Phone: 209.658.1659

➤ Speaking

Steve Cassady is a dynamic speaker. He has appeared in seven televised documentaries on the Golden Gate Bridge. He has covered nine Super Bowls as a working writer. He has spoken most often about the Bridge and Bay Area professional football, 1973-1984. He may be reached through the contact information above. Terms for engagements are negotiable and may include in-kind remuneration and/or travel costs.

A nation that loses its grip on its syntax loses its grip on itself.

--Ezra Pound

